

An Elementary Max Vocabulary Worksheet™

1. Matching

Here are some different meats and the animals they come from. Match each meat with the correct picture of the animal.

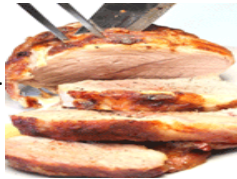

i. Write a - c in the box beside each word.

Words: 1. turkey , 2. beef , 3. chicken

We often talk about a slice of meat.

This is a piece of meat you cut off the meat.

We often talk about the way meat has been made into different things, cut or cooked.

ii. Match each picture with the words below: Write a - c in the box beside each word.

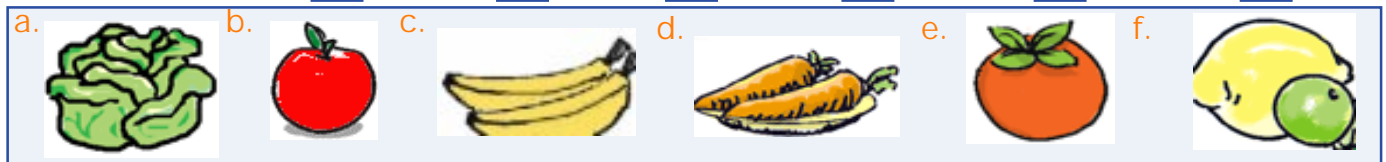

Words: 1. ham , 2. roast , 3. sausages

Here are some different fruit and vegetables. Match each one with their name:

iii. Write a - f in the box beside each word.

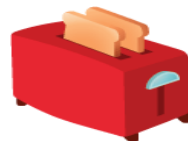

Words: 4. lettuce , 5. tomato , 6. apple , 7. lemon , 8. carrots , 9. bananas

When there is a group of bananas and carrots, we often talk about a bunch of bananas or carrots.

We often eat bread for breakfast or lunch.
We often talk about a slice or piece of bread.
When bread is cooked, we call it toast.

We often eat toast for breakfast.
We cook it in a toaster.

We may put butter on toast and then something else like peanut butter or honey or jam/jelly.

We often eat cereals (special food made from wheat, rice etc that you can eat for breakfast) like cornflakes or muesli for breakfast with milk.

We may shop for food at a supermarket.

Sometimes we go to a market (a place where people go to buy and sell things, often outside.)

Sometimes we go to a special store that sells only one thing e.g. a butcher's for meat.

We may go out to a restaurant for a meal or buy takeout/takeaway food from a fast food restaurant that sells food like hamburgers, hotdogs, pizza or fries.

2. Crossword Puzzles

Your teacher is going to divide the class into two groups.

One of you is Student A, the other is Student B. Work together and fill in the crossword.

Ask and answer questions with your partner. Do not show the other person your words.

3: Vocabulary Extension

Have you learned any new words doing these exercises? Add them and their meanings to your vocabulary notebook.

